RISE is promoting the Chess In Schools program in support of the Eswatini National Chess Federation and seeks sponsor support.

WHY YOU WANT CHESS IN YOUR SCHOOL

"Visual Stimuli tend to improve memory more than any other stimuli ...Chess is definitely an excellent memory exerciser, the effects of which are transferable to other subjects where memory is necessary". - John Artise – Chess and Education

SOCIAL BENEFITS

In the schools, chess often serves as a bridge, bringing together children of different ages, races and genders in an activity they can all enjoy. For these reasons alone, all schools should be providing opportunities for the learning and practicing of chess. Globally, chess is found as required curricula in nearly 30 countries, including Venezuela, USA, Russia, Bulgaria, Iceland, Canada, Spain and Turkey. The aim of chess in schools is not to generate professional grand masters. The most important aim is to teach chess and give young generations a learning tool in their life.
